

CHAPTER IV

DISCUSSION

In this chapter, the writer describes about the data concerning with the transitivity patterns and the implication (field) of the speech-script and also discusses the findings of study in Donald Trump's speech during the Arabic Islamic summit at king Abdul Aziz conference centre in Riyadh, on May 21st 2017.

4.1 Transitivity Patterns

As presented in the previous chapter, the implication (field) is realized at the lexicogrammar pattern through transitivity system. In this chapter, the writer would like to present the data analysis focusing on the transitivity system. The following process types are the transcript of the speech-script of Donald Trump's speech during the Arabic Islamic summit at king Abdul Aziz conference centre in Riyadh, on May 21st 2017.

4.3 Process Type Explanation

After recognizing the total of the process types used in Donald Trump's speech, the writer would like to explain more about each process types used in the speech.

4.3.1 Material Process

As the table above, it shows that material processes are very dominant. We can discuss and find that there are several important points that Donald Trump wants to deliver to the audiences. By using material process in the speech, Donald Trump invites the audiences to make a coalition and work together combating radicalization and drive out the terrorist and also to make stability in the Middle East.
